EXPERIENCE

Senior Product Designer Nov 2023 - Present

Broadcom Palo Alto, CA

- Lead Network Operations UX and dashboard design within VCF Operations, unifying networking capabilities and contextual workflows for complex cloud infrastructure.
- Led UX vision and concept design for Network AI Assistant, prototyping conversational AI and agentic UX that connect object context, diagnostic evidence, and recommended actions.
- Designed AI-driven workflows with human-in-the-loop approval, remediation scope, and partial-success states; defined LLM model selection and session continuity to preserve context.
- Partner with product and engineering to align design with strategy and technical constraints; lead cross-functional design reviews and mentor junior designers.

Product Designer III Feb 2023 - Nov 2023

VMware Palo Alto, CA

- Led end-to-end NSX+ onboarding, subscription bundle, and deployment experience design, simplifying complex enterprise workflows into clear user journeys.
- Developed high-fidelity prototypes and conducted usability testing with cross-functional teams, aligning user needs and business objectives to improve adoption and operational efficiency.

Product Designer II Nov 2019 - Feb 2023

VMware Palo Alto, CA

- Delivered 0-to-1 Malware Prevention design for NSX-T Security Advanced Threat Prevention (ATP), translating complex security concepts into clear, usable experiences.
- Clarified security data through progressive disclosure and advanced timestamp filtering; established a reusable security-widget pattern library for cohesive system interactions.
- Contributed design to the ATP solution recognized with a Gold Prize in the Cybersecurity Excellence Awards.

User Experience Intern Jun 2018 - Aug 2018

Quicken Loans Detroit, MI

- Conducted user research, interaction mapping, heuristic evaluation, and usability testing to improve purchase journeys and information architecture, contributing to a 20% increase in website traffic and sales.
- Designed mobile app mockups for purchasing and customer service; built the Serial User Flow front-end interface for Production Facility Lab.
